The text describes and interprets the people, events, and concepts that have been important throughout Baptist history. The documents book provides representative and influential confessions of faith actual important to our heritage. The polity book introduces one way of describing and categorizing Baptist distinctives. These books complement one another as tools for understanding our Baptist heritage.

Requirements

- A. Tests: There will be six (6) tests, each worth 25 points, given throughout the semester. The lowest test grade will be dropped.
- B. Assigned Reading: Students are expected to read the assigned pages listed for each day. The percentage of each unit's assigned reading that was completed will be reported (in 20% increments) on that unit's test. Each report will be worth 5 points. An additional 5 point bonus will be awarded at the time of the final exam to students who have completed all the assigned reading for the course by the time of the final.

Additional Bonus Reading: This year we will be endeavoring to read through the Bible together. As an added incentive, students who participate in this can earn up to 5 bonus points. At the end of the semester, students will report how much of the Fall Semester Bible Reading Plan they have completed (in 20% increments).

C. Book Review: Each student will write a review of a book that is either a biography of someone in Baptist life, a history of Baptist life in a particular area (association, state, country) or a history of a Baptist denomination. The book must be approved by the professor. The review will be written as though for an academic magazine or journal. It should:

- 1) identify the book's main thesis or purpose,
- 2) give a brief summary of the contents,
- 3) include an evaluation of the work's strengths and weaknesses.

All quotations and direct references to sections in the book should be indicated by page numbers within parentheses. Citations or paraphrases from other sources should be noted and documented using either footnotes or endnotes. Reviews should be 4-6 pages in length, double-spaced. The review is worth 45 points. A late review will be assessed an initial 10 point penalty. Each calendar day after the due date an additional 10 point penalty will be assessed. Due February 22.

D. Confession of Faith: Each student will write their own personal Confession of Faith. Include Scripture references as support for your views. While you may choose to model your confession after one of the existing confessions, it is not necessary to do so. If you make extensive use of one or more existing confessions, please note this in an introductory paragraph. However, this is your personal confession. Do not simply copy entire sections of a confession. Put it into your own words. Include the elements which you believe are necessary to be a Christian and to practice as a Baptist. Use headings to indicate major necessary doctrines such as God, Bible, humanity, salvation, Church (definition/authority over congregation/congregational leaders/ordinances), last things, etc. Your confession must have a title page and a table of contents. There are no page limits and it may be single spaced. The Confession is worth 50 points. A late confession will be assessed an initial 10 point penalty. Each calendar day after the due date an additional 10 point penalty will be assessed. Due March 29.

E. Research Paper: Choose one of the following options for your research paper. E-mail me your top three topic interests (in order of preference from either option) by February 8. Assignments will be determined shortly thereafter. Papers require a title page, a table of contents, a bibliography, and footnotes or endnotes (parenthetical citations are not acceptable). It must be double spaced and follow Turabian, sixth edition, for style. However, do not use chapters to separate sections of your paper (chapters require a new page for each new chapter and the project is not long enough to justify this). Use section headings instead. The appendix should come before the bibliography and be single spaced. The text of your paper (not counting table of contents, appendix, or bibliography) should be 8-12 pages in length (no more, no less). Use 5 - 10 sources with a minimum of three (3) books (do not use only Internet sources).

A hard copy of your paper will be turned in to the professor. An additional copy of your paper must be posted on the appropriate area under the "Groups" area on Blackboard as a .pdf document. This will allow the rest of the class to read your paper in its original format. Failure to post your paper on Blackboard in the correct format will result in a 5 point penalty. A late paper will be assessed an initial 10 point penalty. Each calendar day after the due (excluding Sunday) an additional 10 point penalty will be assessed.

Projects will be graded on clear organization, spelling, and grammar as well as content. Format is important only on the paper copy that you hand in. For examples of Turabian form, see the Turabian Tutor on Blackboard. The paper is worth 100 points. Due April 12.

Option 1 A professor at a community college in the area where you are serving has asked you to explain if Southern Baptists are any different from other Baptist groups in the United States. Compare your assigned group and its stated beliefs and denominational structure with that of the Southern Baptist Convention. Note the similarities and differences in outlook, teachings, and methods of organization. Compare the “Baptist Faith and Message” with the official Doctrinal Statement or Confession of Faith of the group. Explain what a church needs to do to be considered a cooperating church within that fellowship and how churches are represented at the various denominational levels (voting/financial representation with association, state, nation). Describe who comprises denominational leadership (president and/or executive council) and how it is chosen. Indicate each group’s willingness to participate with interdenominational agencies such as the Baptist World Alliance or World Council of Churches. You may also want to write your group’s denominational headquarters and ask for copies of their Constitution, By-Laws, and Confession of Faith. Finally, as an appendix, include a two-page, single-paced fact sheet on your denomination. It should include information on your denomination’s headquarters (address, phone, web site, etc.), number of congregations and where they are concentrated (North, South, New England), and a brief summary of beliefs and structure. You may also include anything else you find of interest about your group. Your fact sheet should be no longer than two (2) pages and does not count toward the page limit of your paper.

Your grade will be determined as follows:

History	20 points
Summary of Doctrine	20 points
Denominational structure/organization	20 points
Comparison with SBC	20 points
Fact sheet (Appendix)	10 points
Form/Grammar	10 points

Option 2 You have been asked to give a report to the Baptist World Alliance on Baptist missions and development in a select area of the world. In your report you will:

1. Give a brief history of when Baptist activity (by all Baptist denominations) began in your area and its subsequent development
2. Identify the Baptist denominations currently doing mission work in your area, the number of missionaries they send and type of work they do (hospital, church planting, education). Please note if information is not available on your country because of security reasons.
3. Note if your country also sends missionaries to other countries, listing the countries and the size of the missionary force.
4. Offer an explanation for the number of different Baptist denominations in your country. Example: Why are there 14 Baptist denominations in Japan? – see Wardin. (e.g. historical development, cultural differences, or theological controversy).
5. Include an appendix. Describe the unique challenges to evangelism and Baptist development in your country. Make suggestions for responding to these challenges. Include statistics (creative access countries excluded) of the Baptist denominations in your country (number of congregations/ membership). It should be two (2) pages, single-spaced, and does not count toward the page limit of your paper.

Your grade will be determined as follows:

History of Baptist work in your country	30 points
Identify Baptist groups sending missionaries to your country	20 points
