MAY 21, 2017

This morning in the 11am service we will honor the high school graduating class of 2017. What a great day this is for students and parents. Congratulations young men and women!

In tonight's service we will be having baby dedication. And before you know it, these children will be walking across the stage on Senior Sunday at Olive!

Next Sunday at 5:30pm we will gather for worship on the Warrington campus. Come and join us for a night of celebration. We will look back and look forward. There is much to do as we prepare to launch a new work on our west campus. Our deacons were there Thursday evening to see the place and pray over it. We want the Olive family to do the same on Sunday night, May 28. During that service we will take a special offering to aid in the work that needs to be done on the campus.

Please be in prayer for Tommi Lyter, the new Pensacola Chief of Police. This Friday at 2pm Olive is honored to host the swearing in of the new law enforcement leader. Serving the city in this role is no small task.

Here am I, Lord. Send me!
