Welcome to Olive

SEPT. 24, 2017

There are some special elements to this morning's worship at Olive. I am preaching early in the service. We will conclude with the Lord's Supper and in between we will ask the Olive family to affirm the financial recommendations of the Finance Committee and Deacons. These have to do with allocating the overage of last year's budget and funding for the Warrington campus.

After the service today our Next Step table leaders will be waiting in the foyer to greet you. There you can pray to be saved. You can place your membership in the Olive family. Or maybe you are a member already and need someone to pray with you. I encourage you to take a next step this morning.

Last Sunday evening we had a remarkable beginning to our fall Sunday night format. Financial Peace University led the way. There are also places for children and youth. Check out Olive at 5:30 on Sunday night. It is a helpful place!

Relaunch giving is approaching $6.5 million. Wow! I think we are going to make the goal. Three months to go!

Special Business Meeting September 24

Contact: Dan Beard | 475-1117 or dbeard@olivebaptist.org
The church will vote on the following recommendations this morning during both services:
1. Overage Recommendation:
The Finance Committee in concurrence with the Deacons recommend the allocation of 2016-17 Budget overage funds in the amount of $335,289.00 for the following: UWF Ministry, Warrington church Plant, Employee Enrichment, NOBTS Scholarship Fund, Moulton Property Upgrade, Self-Insurance Fund, Passmore Hall Chairs, Hill Memorial scholarship and Capital & Ministry Reserves.

2. Warrington Start Up Recommendation:
The Finance Committee in concurrence with the Deacons recommends, given that the 2017 church budget does not include the startup cost for the Warrington Campus and recognizing that time is of the essence the finance committee approved the church administrator proceeding with procurement of approximately $400,000 of audio visual and various items necessary for worship at the new campus.
