Welcome to Olive!

APRIL 22, 2018

You will notice Jon Tyner and many from our music ministry are absent today. Thank you for praying for them as they are in Washington DC singing the Gospel at various venues.

It is our joy to welcome some friends back to Olive for morning worship. Seth and Leah Taylor are leading us as we lift our voices in song this morning. I remember visiting in their home years ago. Then I prayed with them about the call of the Lord to ministry. They are some of my favorite people.

Dr. Jeremiah Johnston is president of Christian Thinkers Society and an associate professor of Early Christianity at Houston Baptist University. I invited him to preach for us this morning when I learned he would be in town this weekend. As we expand our ministry with college students, Dr. Johnston's material will provide great tools for us. His book Unanswered is a must read. Join me in welcoming and hearing this dynamic young preacher.

Tonight I will be back in Revelation 5. And then the next six weeks we will finish the coming events series from the last book in the Bible.
